

In the words of a former campus missionary apprentice

There is no greater calling then to submit our lives to Christ in everything we do. Whatever vocation, career, or calling you sense God directing you to, you need to ask yourself this question: have I taken the time to equip myself to be a minister of the gospel, right now?

I asked myself that question as I was finishing my last year at University. God had begun to grow in me a heart for people, but I knew I needed time to be poured into, to be shaped, and equipped for my desire to do campus ministry.

Taking a year or two after graduation for practical and supervised training (campus missionary apprenticeship) like I did, could be your most critical year at University yet.

The Cause

Christ gave..

...His life for you; what will you give your life for? There is no greater cause than for the gospel. University Christian Ministries believes that if we reconcile students to Christ, then the university, the marketplace, and the world can be transformed. That vision becomes a reality everyday when people like you become missionaries to campuses. UCM's Campus Missionary Apprenticeship will equip you to advance this cause.

The Time

UCM is experiencing an outpouring of support and favour like never before. Christian leaders are catching our vision of impacting the world. That means that the funding, resources, and training are at an all-time high. Our campuses are one of the most strategic mission fields on earth. We must reach them if we want to see the world changed by Christ. Now is the time!

Do you want to make a difference?

Do you enjoy building relationships and equipping young adults to meet the world? Do you have creative abilities that need to be unleashed? Do you want to see the mission fields of the world come to your door? Do you want to work in an environment that never gets stale and will continually challenge you to deeper personal growth and passion for God? Do you want to work on the cutting edge of evangelism to reach this generation of leaders? Do you see yourself as a builder of a strong and healthy community?

The Experience

We Offer...

HANDS: Excellent Ministry Experience

Throughout your apprenticeship you will have the opportunity to lead a small group, doing one-on-one discipleship, stepping out in evangelism, leading worship, developing your preaching skills, leading missions trips, support raising training and much more.

HEART: Strong Character Development

Through one-on-one mentoring, you will be encouraged in your walk with Christ with proven UCM missionaries. This is an essential part of the preparation for ministry.

HEAD: Solid Academics

Prior to your experience on campus, you will start theology studies, if you aren't a Bible School grad. You will be equipped through accredited theological courses.

1-2 Year CMA Campus Program

The length of your CMA program depends on your prior experience & theological education. You will need a desire to learn and the maturity to handle leadership. An undergraduate degree is highly recommended, as well as endorsement from pastors, and faith in God to provide financially for your training.
